

Indiana Fruit and Nut Growers Association Code of Conduct

Indiana Nut and Fruit Growers Association is committed to providing a safe, productive, welcoming environment.

We value and welcome all members and guests. We ask that participants adhere to the policies of this Code of Conduct at INFGA meetings, events, and in all forms of communications. Participants adhere to the policies of this Code of Conduct at INFGA meetings, our vendor and event booths, our social media groups/pages, and in all forms of communications with INFGA members.

- At gatherings, all participants should check in upon arrival and wear a clearly identifiable name badge while attending event (badges will be provided).
- Conduct yourself professionally, always treating others with respect and courtesy at all INFGA gatherings.
- Communicate without engaging in personal attacks, slander, harassment, intimidation or inappropriate language.
- Bring any unsafe, discriminatory, harassing, or aggressive or other unacceptable behavior to the attention of an INFGA officer, Board member, or through email at info@infga.org

We appreciate everyone's participation and your adherence to these guidelines, allowing us to create a safe and respectful environment for all.

Failure to follow this Code of Conduct could result in removal from the event, suspension from future events, or termination of membership.
